Get a gun and wait. If you are ready for adventure, let the game begin. Bored by the similarities of defense and strategy games, the producers thought differently about what we can do and came across Bloons Tower Defense 5. Because our enemies here are balloons. We can say that they are successful because it offers a really impressive experience with its game options and different modes. In addition, there is little room for violence in the game. People of all ages can play if you play at school, with the help of your teacher, if you play at home, you can play with the help of your parents. This will be very helpful in improving your strategy and defense skills. Our main goal is to blow up all the balloons with the weapons given to us before reaching our region. It is a great advantage for you to come from lush and long roads because you can save time. You will see the weapon given to you on the edge of the screen, you have to place it in the most suitable places, they will shoot automatically. These weapons have different speeds and different forces. You can improve them all as they develop, their speed and strength will increase and they will pop more balloons. You can choose from many different missions and maps at the beginning. You will need money to buy new weapons and unlock new cards. You can spend the money earned while playing on development and new cards. I can offer you good tactics. Update! Your level and money will increase as the level passes. If you upgrade your towers regularly using them, it will be harder for the balloons to beat you. The frequently asked questions are: What is the newest Bloons Tower defense?
