After completing the challenge for normal, you will then be able to challenge it again for Hard. This has recommended Level 125 Sync Pairs to use and comes with a few differences Every round you go through the Champion Stage, there is a special parameter. This gives a different result, but it doesn't depend on the trainer you're experiencing, so you can choose and choose which Elite Four member to do to better plan around the Special Paramaters. The Champion has his own set of parameters. These range from increasing damage from special effects to reducing certain statistics. That changes every week. In Hard, if you've lost a Pokémon during a successful battle, you can't use it in any subsequent battles until you reset it at the beginning of next week. In addition to history, there are other ways to level Sync Pairs, and even then you may not easily have the resources you need to advance and power your Pokémon. However, in the game menu, you will find training. Training courses are courses that you can do over and over again in order to get the items.. Following the change with version 1.12.0, the training courses were restructured and new variants were added. These require the use of Stamina, or Skip Tickets if you complete the scene without losing a Pokémon. The greater the difficulty, the more durability is used. There are four different types of training courses: Level-Up Area - Offers Level-Up Manuals to level your pokémon cap unlock area - Offers items to unlock Level Caps Sync Orb Area - Offers items for use in synchronization grids. Stadiums can only be played 10 times a day Evolution Material Area - Offers data on evolution. Stadiums can only be played 3 times a day. After completion, Sync Pair Story can be repeated, but with Pokémon being the current form of evolution rather than pokémon that was going to evolve during it. These stories cost Evolution Shards or Evolution Crystals to do, but if the goal fails you will get the item returned to you.
